KCC Seeks 1st Millage Hike Since 1966

A special election will be held November 5th as Kirtland Community College asks for its first increase in operational millage since the college was founded in 1966.

The college is requesting an increase to one and a half mills from the current rate of one mill.

Ray Homer, KCC president, said the one mill levied for operations has remained unchanged since the college began in 1966.

Since 1966, enrollment has increased from 160 to 1,500 and operation costs have increased.

"We don't have much other choice but to ask for the millage increase," said Homer. "Last year expenditures were $126,000 more than our revenues and this year our costs will probably exceed our revenues by $400,000."

The college does not want to raise tuition or fees to raise more money because tuition has been increased by 45 percent the last ten years to try to cover for increasing costs. With a millage increase, the college wants to hold the line on tuition and fee rates.

Homer said even with a half mill increase, Kirtland Community College would still have one of the lowest millages in the state for a community college.

The millage increase would allow Kirtland to maintain the present services, Homer said.

Currently, KCC receives 26 percent of its budget from the one mill levy for operations. Forty six percent of operating funds come from state aid and 23 percent come from tuition. Five percent come from gifts and miscellaneous income. From the operating funds, 67 percent are spent on instruction, 18 percent on administration, and 15 percent on physical plant operations.

KCC serves more than 3,100 students a year. Last year, 1,575 students enrolled in academic and vocation classes during the fall while more than 1,000 persons enrolled in community services programs. Summer enrollment for 1985 was more than 500.

The cost of the proposed half mill increase would be $10 more a year for a property owner with a house valued at $40,000 and state equalized value at $20,000.

KCC president Ray Homer pointed out that for senior citizens, the state's circuit breaker on property taxes generally protects them from any increase in millage. Seniors can receive 60 to 100 percent refunds on any property taxes paid that exceed 3.5 percent of their income.

College officials estimate the college's economic impact on the area is $3.3 million annually through employee salaries and operating expenses. KCC has also brought into the area about $2 million of federal and state funds through grants and student aid in the last year.

As some of its accomplishments, KCC lists more than 2,000 degrees and certificates awarded since the first graduating class of 1970, classes taught to more than 20,000 students, business training for more than 1000 businessmen, professional development seminars for more than 500 government officials, early entry courses for hundreds of high school juniors and seniors, and G.E.D. (General Educational Development) testing services which have enabled more than 500 area residents to earn the equivalent of a high school diploma.

Canoers vs. Fishermen: Groups Try Compromises

By Barb Fitzgerald

By two o'clock on a hot, sunny Saturday afternoon in July, as many as 600 canoes are floating on the AuSable River between Grayling and Wakeley Bridge.

At the same time, there are fishermen on the river, even though brown trout fishing in July is usually better at night and in dim light.

On a busy Saturday, fishermen sometimes have to dodge canoeists and canoeists sometimes have to dodge fishing lines.

What happens when a fisherman keeps right on fishing and a canoeist keeps on paddling?

In one incident, a family in a canoe was approaching Stephan Bridge and asked fisherman in the river to move. He didn't and cast his fly line instead snagging a young boy in the back of the back. The boy's father had to remove the hook from his son's head because the fisherman didn't want his line cut.

At other times, canoeists have rammed hard into fishermen knocking them into the river — a dangerous situation if waders fill with water.

These accidents could have been avoided if fishermen and canoeists had followed guidelines drawn by the Recreational Canoeing Association and Trout Unlimited. The guidelines were developed after a court case started in 1969 to limit the number of canoes on certain Michigan streams was not resolved. Trail evidence indicated canoes do not damage the river. The court ordered negotiations to work out the differences among fishermen, canoe liveries, and the DNR.

Roger Beilfuss, president of the RCA, said there has been no word from the state on the issue and it is what the court system call a "late dormant" case.

"Nothing has happened on the AuSable or Manistee rivers," said Beilfuss, what may affect the number of canoes rented on either stream.

Instead of letting the issue die, the RCA and TU have worked to educate the public on quality canoeing and appreciating the fisherman's needs.

The Paul H. Young Chapter of TU have printed Canoe Courtesy stickers stating seven common courtesy rules that should be followed when canoeing near fishermen. Keep one canoe length away, avoid all noise, stop paddling and glide past, don't bump canoes with paddles, don't tie canoes together, put trash in barrels, and stop only at public landings. These stickers are available to all canoe liveries in Michigan to place at the bow and stern of rental canoes.

The RCA developed canoe guidelines dealing with all river use. These rules are available to all canoe liveries to post and explain to all canoeists.

"There's no need for a conflict, it's a matter of wise scheduling," says Dave Borgeson, Chief of the DNR Fisheries Division.

The canoe liveries in Grayling have voluntarily agreed to have all canoes off the river by 6:30 p.m. in the designated quality fly fishing waters from Burton's to Wakeley Bridge. The canoe liveries have also voluntarily frozen the number of canoes available for rent in Grayling since the court case started.

"It helps not to have canoeists on the river after 6 p.m.," says Bob Woodland, local fly fisherman and TU member. "If you fish during the week instead of the weekend, canoe traffic is not as heavy. If you fish earlier at Burton's, canoes don't get there until 12 or 1 p.m., and then you fish Wakeley later."

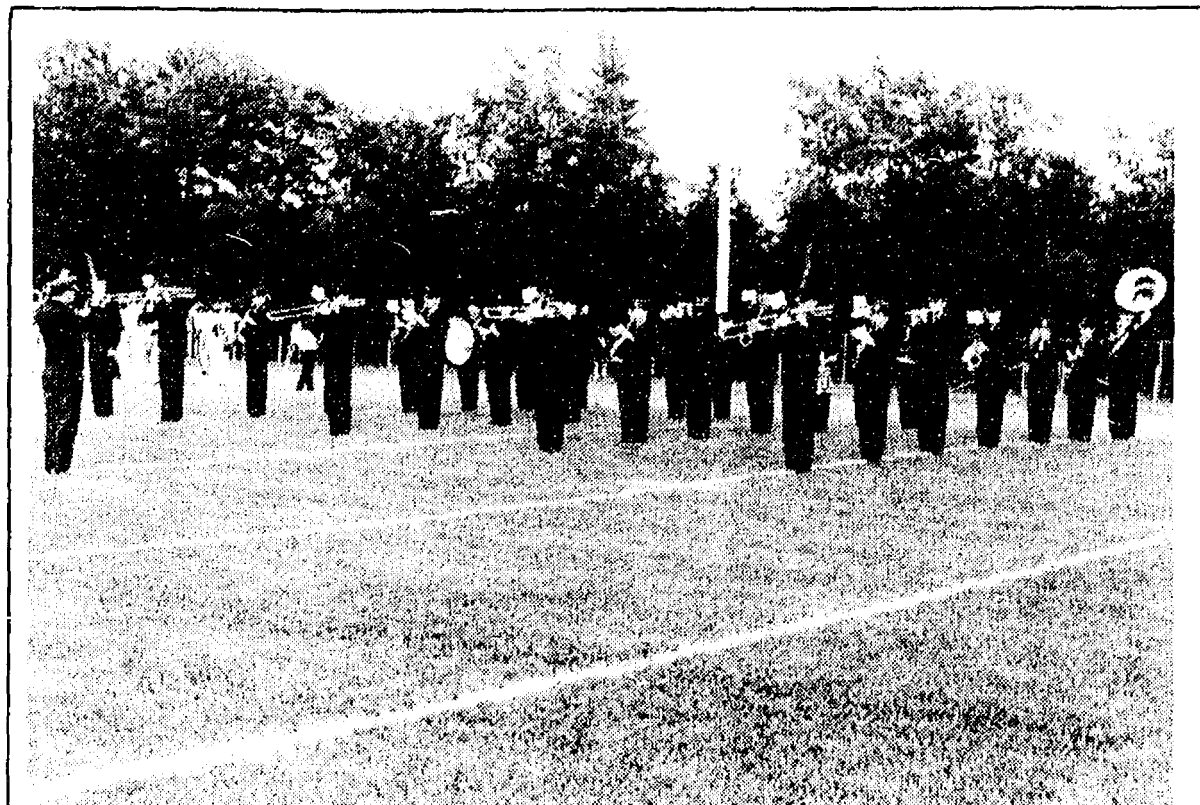

"Avoid the problems," Woodland says, "fish the North Branch when the traffic is heavy on the mainstream, and don't stand there and wait for them (canoeists) to hit you."

Woodland said one way that might help control canoe behavior is to outlaw booze on the river because it makes people belligerent. Woodland said there are only a few drunks on the river but those few ruin it for everyone.

With canoeists following courtesy rules and fishermen not casting near canoes and getting out of the way when necessary, the two groups should be able to share the river.

Borgeson, DNR Fisheries Chief, feels sharing the river is a good idea and "What's good for the AuSable is good for Grayling," he says.

Mercy Hospital Undergoes More Employee Changes

Mercy Hospital recently underwent a reorganization of its organizational structure that resulted in the elimination or reclassification of 17 management positions. Most of the managers affected have elected to take other positions in the hospitals or to fill vacant jobs that had not been filled in recent weeks in anticipation of the reorganization. Seven employees are expected to be out of work as a result of the cuts.

Two reasons were cited for the reorganization: changing Medicare reimbursement and a high manager to employee ratio.

The DRG (Diagnosis Related Grouping) system of payment for Medicare that started in July of 1984 is in its second year of a four year phase-in to national payment rates. This results in a lower reimbursement of Mercy Hospital, as with most hospitals in the northeastern United States.

Another reason for the cutbacks was the high manager-to-employee ratio. In the last year and a half, the hospital staff has been reduced by over 50 employees. "We had not reduced any management positions," said Sister Mary Ellen, adding, "With less employees, we don't require as many managers and supervisors."

Cost containment efforts instituted over the past two years have been effective. There has not been a price increase for Mercy Hospital's room rates or services since July 1983. Some price reductions have been made possible through staff reductions, strict budget controls, and other cost-saving measures.

Sister Mary Ellen called the reductions "unfortunate and distressing to everyone involved," but a measure taken by most hospitals in Michigan as a result of the Federal government's new prospective payment system.

Local Photographer Adds Trout Diorama To Wildlife Collection

By Jon Thompson

Carrol and Sally Wert's living room is already filled with unusual wildlife decorations and furniture.

There are tables with deer horns for legs, colorful outdoor scenes painted on huge, dried fungus, "jackpine owls" made from deer and antelope skins, and the traditional mounted heads of deer, antelope, and other trophies.

Now there's another eye-catching wildlife attraction — seven types of trout mounted in a scene depicting a river-bottom with a painted riverside forest background.

"I got the idea in Montana two summers ago," said Carrol Wert, a professional portrait and wildlife photographer. "Someone had a brown trout mounted on a bare board with a few stones on it to represent the river bottom. It was a good idea but I thought I could do it better."

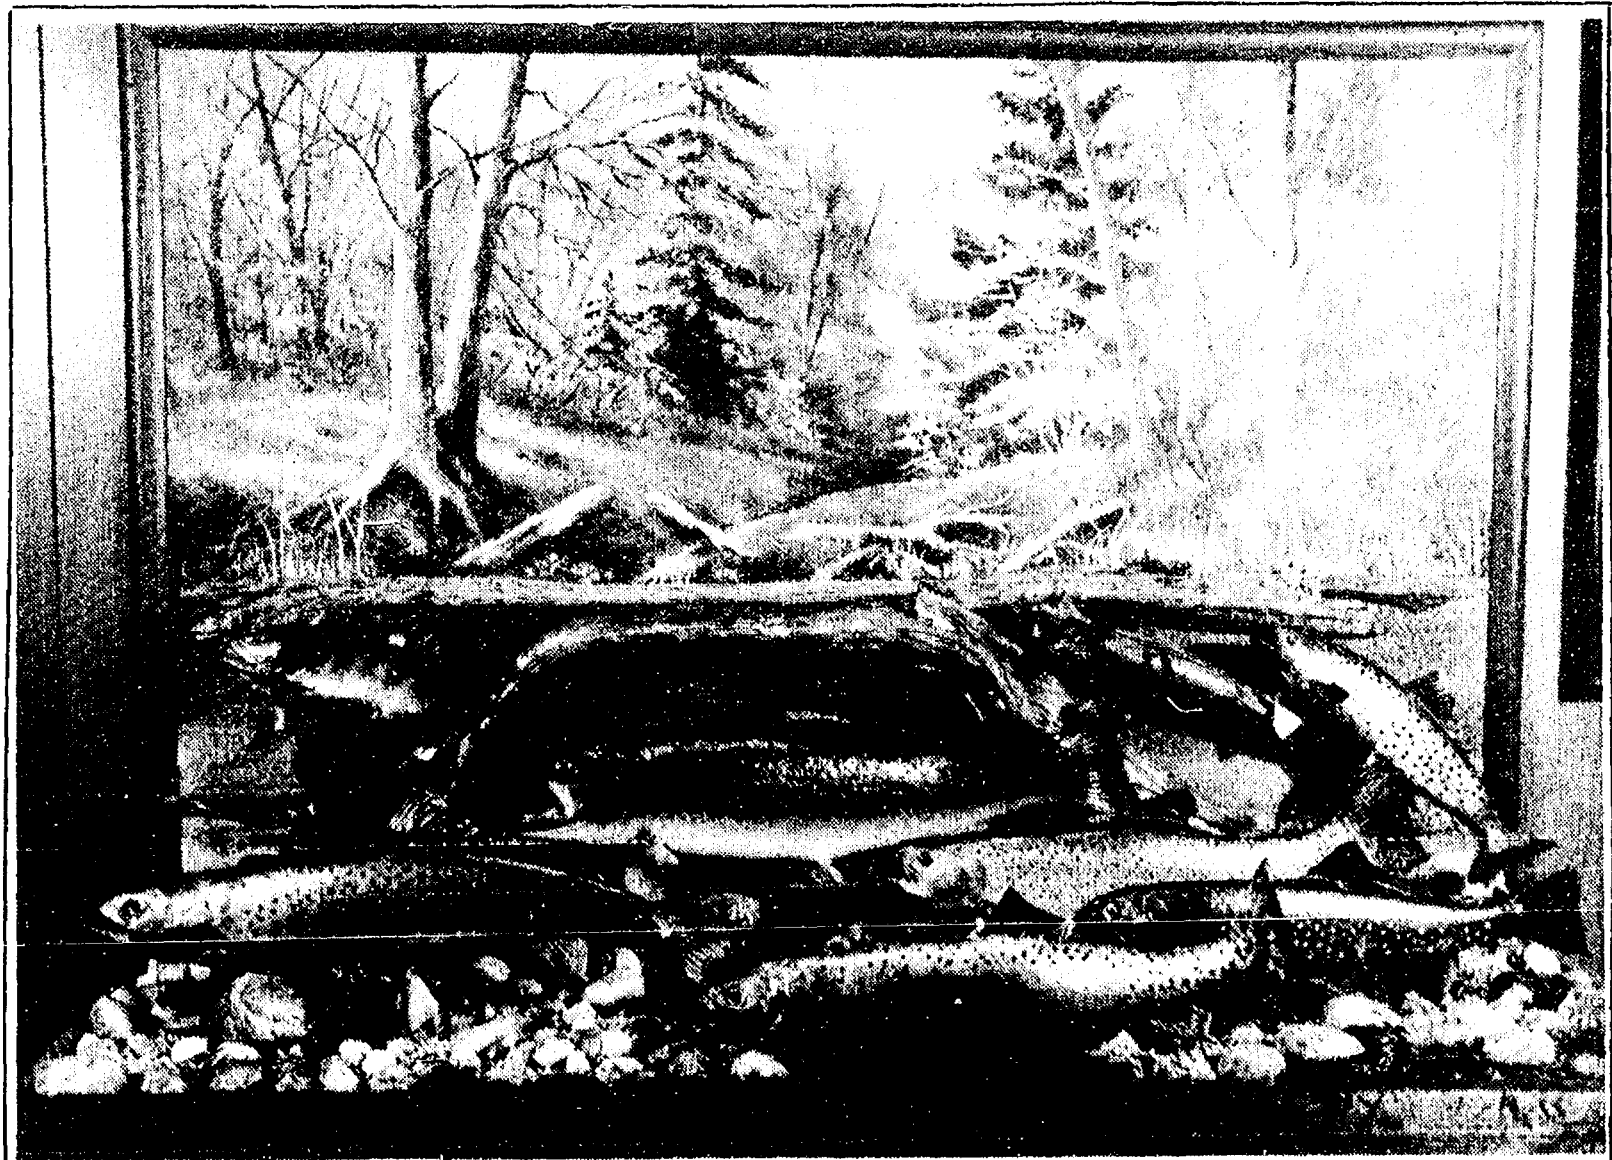

First, Wert had to catch the seven kinds of trout he wanted to include in his diorama. He caught the golden trout, pure cutthroat, hybrid cutthroat, and dolly varden out West. Back home in Grayling he caught a brown trout, rainbow, and brook trout. The first brook trout Wert caught didn't work out during mounting and so a friend gave him another brook trout caught from the Manistee.

Tom Phillips, of Grayling, mounted the fish for Wert and started the painting. Wert finished the painting of the fish, placing the delicate spots on the trout in the right areas.

Dena Kolb, of Grayling, painted the riverside forest backdrop for Wert. It shows a springtime scene with marsh marigolds and Juneberry in blossom.

Wert constructed the riverbottom using Petoskey stones

From Our Corner...

I quit...

I'm quitting writing this turkey before my boss gets to the Editor's Mailbox on page 14 and reads the top letter...I have tried to snow job him to the fact that some readers have passed over our corner, and some enjoyed my writing about my granddaughters, to justify our column in your favorite paper...

We would rather quit, than being fired for the first time in nearly 50 years...

I guess the worst decision I made as a young one was newspaper, I should have gone along with the electronic media, I may have been referred to as a personality...instead of, as we have been called a "printer's devil"...

To Mrs. A. I will turn the other cheek, and as you refer, may God love you...

It is most evident that you are a nature lover, and a lady of the church...we agree with you that these columns you refer to are great...but isn't it nice that each of us have our own convictions in this life...I too, love our surroundings, and believe in the deity...but, I do not eat herbs, and wander in the forest to check the habitat...and attend church...

Like the saying goes...as you pass through life...do stop and smell the roses...because you only have one chance...but as a Christian lady as you profess, you do not show any compassion for someone YOU say must be a disturbed person...

I have to wonder who is disturbed...in your letter you requested anonymity because you and your husband are part-time residents of Grayling and you do not care for any verbal attacks...we cannot comprehend that statement...

Since receiving your ego deflating letter we have been trying to figure how we could mail your copy (that is if you are a subscriber) without Our Corner in it, and then you wouldn't be bothered with the trivial things in life, and possibly save you as a subscriber to the next person who may sit in this chair...

In closing Mrs. A., we never knew a turkey chattered...we always thought they gobbled...

We were asked last week why we weren't wearing our Go Blue cap after the big M took the measure of Notre Dame...we can't find it...in fact this afternoon when I finish this gobble we're going to look again...we smiled Blue Sunday morning after reading of the slaughter of South Carolina...what I can't figure out is Bo can beat these teams out of the conference during the season but, when it comes to the bowl games, it is a different story...we quit betting when we were in the service...I spent a month on my bunk because we couldn't take in any R & R because I lost a month's paycheck...

That is why I don't bet Bo in bowl games...

Our bride has made it definite...she will be all done on January 31st...I'm real happy, that knocks one winter month out that I won't have to be out in my P.J.s and robe, and boots to try to get her car started...won't that be nice for the ol' fella...I feel warm already...

That takes care of this week's turkey trivial...so we will bid goodnight to T.J., Stefany and Amber, (our granddaughters in case you didn't know) and to anyone else who wasted their time on Our Corner, do have a nice weekend...we just looked at the calendar, and autumn arrived Monday, it is no wonder we felt a bit of chill in the air as we walked down to the office...Rena is going to like me this week, maybe we will have her add a couple leads, so we can stretch the turkey...without more trivial things...

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

CHRISTIANITY AND FISH

When Jesus talked to people, to get their attention, He usually began the conversation related to that which was upon their minds. To the woman at the well of John Chapter 4, Jesus talked about water. He talked about birds and flowers to remind us of how God would care for us. (Matthew 6:24-34). He spoke of splinters and poles of wood in our eyes to remind us of how blind we are of our problems. (Matt 7:1-5). He spoke of fish and serpents in Matt 7:12. He spoke of different kinds of gates, (Matt 7:13, 14). He spoke of wolves in sheep's clothing, (Matthew 7:15). He spoke of comparing good and corrupt fruit trees to men, (Matt 7:16-20). He spoke of our different lives as houses in storms, (Matthew 7:24-27).

Fish became closely identified with early Christianity. They left the sign of the fish in the catacombs of Rome. The first disciples Jesus called were fishermen. (Matthew 4:18-22). Jesus related their new occupation with the old. He called them "fishers of men." (Matthew 4:19). Jesus again encouraged Peter in Luke 5:10: "...Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men." Following the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ, Peter still desired to go back to fishing. "Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing." (John 21:3). After filling their nets with another miracle, (John 21:4-8), Jesus cooked breakfast for them of fish and bread, (John 21:9-14). After breakfast, Jesus again called Peter to return to the ministry, this time not as a fisherman, but as a shepherd. (John 21:15-17). "Feed my sheep."

Fishing for the souls of men is not a choice for the Bible Christian, it is a command of our Lord. "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen" (Matthew 28:19, 20). "And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." (Mark 16:15).

The Bible reminds us of different ways to catch fish. We can use nets, (Ecc. 9:12, Habb 1:14-17, Matt 4:21, Luke 5:2-6, and John 21:9-13). We can use hooks, (Isa 19:8, Amos 4:2, and Matt 17:27). We can use spears, (Job 41:7). Some people can be handled gently with nets. Others must have the force of hooks. Unfortunately, some big people require spears to land. However, spearing a person with the Word of God brings a dead man to eternal life.

The souls of all human beings are precious. We must try to reach their souls by the preaching of God's Word. We dare not be like Jonah. For failure to fish for the souls of Nineveh, God turned Jonah into fish bait. If Christians mean business for God, they should know one end of the pole from the other. In our modern world, it is growing harder to tell the fish and fishermen apart. Only when we plant our feet on the bank of God's Holy Scriptures can we be in position to land fish from the murky waters of this sin-cursed world.

Alumni News

As I read the article written for our Alumni Homecoming, I noticed a correction I will make. Somewhere between my typewriter and the one at the Avalanche, a key, word was left out. We recognized 2 "complete" families...and there were other family members together. Like we say, we try to make only specific notice of some of us. One thing brought to my attention was the one year Ruth Burrows Moore taught here, which should have been included in the attending teachers.

We plan ahead for '86 with our new President, Bill Joseph...it will be a good one. Some time in the near future, we will disclose a magnificent activity for the old "Green and White".

You Are Special

Somewhere near you a young girl wants to be a Girl Scout. Maybe it's your daughter or younger sister, or the girl next door, you know that girl scouting can offer her much that is valuable and good, and can help her grow to a rich and full adulthood.

When a girl wants to be a girl scout it's not as simple as registering her in a troop. A troop never just happens. Girl Scouting is only as good as the community & family backing it receives.

There are girls who need leaders who are registered so they can sell cookies, but they need adult leadership. Please contact Jackie Parker, S.U.D. at 348-8705 or Dixie Lobsinger, Troop Organizer at 348-9178.

by Richard Millman

PRESIDENT REAGAN may be making tax reform his Number One legislative goal these days, always talking about it and pushing for it, but do the people really care?

Not according to reports from several members of Congress, many of whom spent much of their summer recess back in their districts, talking to voters about what's on their minds.

It's not tax reform, if we can believe press reports growing out of several such congressional summer vacations.

Many voters, however, are very worried about mounting federal deficits.

"YOU WANT to know what people are interested in," asks Democratic Rep. Robert Traxler of Bay City.

"Not one person is talking about taxes. Not one. What they want to know, number one, is what are those crazies in Washington doing about the deficit."

The Republican House leader, Rep. Robert Michel of Illinois, found that the nation's international trade imbalance also bothered voters, as well as deficits, but not tax reform.

"There's much more concern about those issues than tax reform. There's no way around it," Michel said.

THE DEMOCRATIC leadership group in the House reflects similar views. At a post-vacation session with Speaker Tip O'Neill, members reported hearing many more complaints about trade problems than any other issue, although the leadership hasn't decided which sort of trade legislation should be brought up.

O'Neill has promised that the House will debate Mr. Reagan's tax reform proposals, but has warned the President it will be up to Mr. Reagan, and not Mr. O'Neill, to secure enough votes to pass it. Obviously Mr. O'Neill doesn't think the votes are there.

Based on members' summer voter sessions, there probably aren't. But Mr. Reagan has turned things around before, and he could again. He is not known as "The Great Communicator" for nothing.

MICHIGAN voters aren't too upset about much of anything, it appears from the summer vacation reports from several Michigan Congressmen.

Rep. Guy Vander Jagt of Luther toured more than 40 western Michigan towns in a motor home, logging in 740 voter visits.

"What surprised me was the general good feeling that people had," Vander Jagt said. "Out of 740, one fellow was a bit non-civil — and that was early in the morning." Rep. Robert Carr of East Lansing said his constituents "aren't focusing on issues right now." Said Carr: "They're thinking about other things. It's summer in Michigan. They're thinking about getting to the cottage. They're thinking about getting out on the boat."

REP. MARK SILJANDER of Three Rivers, member of the Foreign Affairs Committee, found the voters interested more in their pocketbooks than global hot spots.

"Frankly, the average person doesn't care about South Africa," Siljander said. "They don't even care about Nicaragua. Most people care about if their paycheck will be there and how the economy is progressing."

Rep. Dennis Hertel of Detroit, outguessing his constituents, decided against scheduling lots of constituent sessions because "everyone else is on vacation, too," according to an assistant quoted in a news report.

ALL OF THESE findings are probably true. People do indeed, tend to focus their attention inward, being more concerned about pocketbook issues — as Siljander found — and how well they're doing rather than how bad somebody else is doing — as Vander Jagt and Carr reported.

This sampling also indicates things are looking up in Michigan right now, and like it or not, those who are currently in office — regardless of party — get credit for the good things.

That's one reason 1986 is going to be a tough year to knock off incumbents, Republican or Democrat. Republican gubernatorial hopefuls Bill Lucas, Dan Murphy, et al., should take special note of these indications.

Hunters Reminded of Bear Hunting Regulation Changes

Lansing — Dept. of Natural Resources (DNR) Wildlife Division remind hunters to note major changes in this year's bear season regulations.

The Natural Resources Commission approved a shorter season this year until more precise data on Michigan's existing bear population could be gathered. The bear season for the Upper Peninsula (Zone 1) will run from September 10-October 31 (Drummond and Bois Blanc Islands closed). No bear may be taken in the U.P. during the November 15-30 firearm deer season, as previously allowed.

Hunting of bear in certain counties of the northern Lower Peninsula (Zone 2) will run from September 10-16. Counties include: Alcona, Alpena, Antrim, Charlevoix, Cheboygan, Crawford, Emmet, Iosco, Kalkaska, Missaukee, Montmorency, Ogemaw, Oscoda, Presque Isle, Roscommon. A special bow season will be offered in Zone 2 from October 1-7.

Dogs with a permit, gun or bow are allowed in both the U.P. and northern Lower Peninsula; however, no guns or dogs may be used during the October 1-7 bow season in Zone 2. The dog permit is free and may be obtained from most DNR District Offices or from DNR Information Services Center, 7th floor Mason Bldg., Lansing, 48909/517-373-1220.

First time baiting limitations were implemented this year mainly to reduce commercialization of bait use, aid in litter control and to minimize conflict between bait and dog hunters. Bait can now be placed only on the ground and no containers may be left in the woods. Bait placement was restricted this year to August 27-October 31 in the U.P. and August 27 to October 7 in the northern Lower Peninsula.

Another change in the 1985 bear season requires a hunter to register a bear at a DNR Field Office within 72 hours after killing the animal (head with validation tag is sufficient). A 7-day period was previously allowed. This decision was made to encourage registration of all bears.

Non-resident bear licenses ($100.25), limited this year to 875 persons, are available now only through DNR License Control Office, 6th floor Mason Bldg., Box 30028, Lansing, Mi. 48909 - 517-373-1204. At this date, nearly 75 licenses remain to be sold.

Michigan residents 14 years and older may obtain bear licenses ($11.25) from Michigan license dealers, DNR Regional, District, Field Offices and at DNR's Information Services Center in Lansing.

The bag limit for the 1985 bear season still remains at one bear per calendar year, with no open season on cub bear.

Trees to Wear Fall Colors

Doodles From The Tall Timber

by Wendell L. Hoover

From my desk the progression toward fall is becoming more evident. The window is high and offers a view of the tree tops and sky only. Beyond the service road there is a Maple with a red crown and some red showing on the side that I see, while right next to it there is another Maple with a splash of orange. These two Maples go through the same procedure each fall. The other trees around them are still lushly green.

Right next to the road is a good sized Silver Maple which has leaves a good six inches across with five deep lobes. While some trees flower at the same time the leaves are appearing, the Silver Maple flowers before the leaves appear and the paired seeds which are up to two inches long, ripen in the spring.

One source I have indicates the Silver Maple is typical of moist soil and grows rapidly. Although this Maple is often planted as an ornamental, its leaves do not become highly colored in the fall. This particular tree will in fact still be green when the other trees nearby are bare or colored in all their glory. It is as if it is reluctant to call it quits for the season. If this winter is as crazy as the summer, I can concur with the tree.

Governor Proposes Use of Cigarette Tax to Cut Deficit

at its August meeting divided on the issue, but did defeat a resolution supporting the planned sunset.

Blanchard said Michigan could add $90 million by picking up the eight-cent tax which "could be well spent on important state needs. But I believe it will be even better spent by using it to reduce the deficit and help remove that cloud from Michigan's future."

FEDERAL GRANT TO FUND MENTAL HEALTH TRAINING PROJECTS

Mental Health Dept. Director C. Patrick Babcock recently announced a project of expanding and updating skills of mental health and related human service workers will be funded by a three-year, $439,000 grant from the Institute of Mental Health.

The grant, awarded to the department's Office of Resource Development, will permit the department to proceed with four separate training efforts, Babcock explained.

The projects include a work force demonstration project, focusing on workers safety, reduction of worker compensation costs and job satisfaction.

Other parts of the project include expansion of an information system to allow the department to monitor composition of work force and project future needs for various mental health specialists such as psychologists, registered nurses, social workers, physicians and other therapists.

Additional parts of the grant will be used for development of training programs tailored to the needs of case managers and development of increased training for law enforcement or mental health workers who deal with persons confined to local or county jails who also are exhibiting signs of mental disorders.

Governor James Blanchard has urged President Ronald Reagan, the U.S. Congress, and his fellow governors to support an extension of a federal cigarette tax to be earmarked to reduce the federal deficit.

In a recent letter outlining his stance on the tax, the Governor invited the President to visit Michigan to acknowledge the state's success in its fiscal recovery and to highlight the fact that bipartisan co-operation is needed to attack the deficit issue.

He noted he has declared November 30 as Solvency Day, when a $1.7 billion accumulated deficit will have been eliminated by portions of the income tax and cigarette tax earmarked for that purpose.

The Governor, in an address to the Michigan Municipal League, said retention by the federal government of an eight-cent per pack tax, which is scheduled to expire September 30, could provide $3 billion a year toward reducing the deficit.

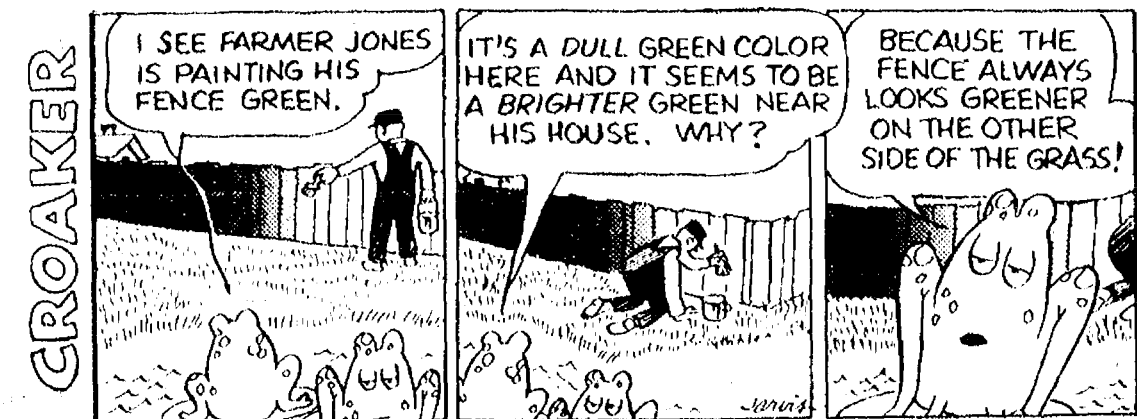

The total federal cigarette tax is currently 16-cents.

"It is essential that future federal revenues from this excise tax be retained by the federal government, but only if they are not squandered on new spending," the Governor said.

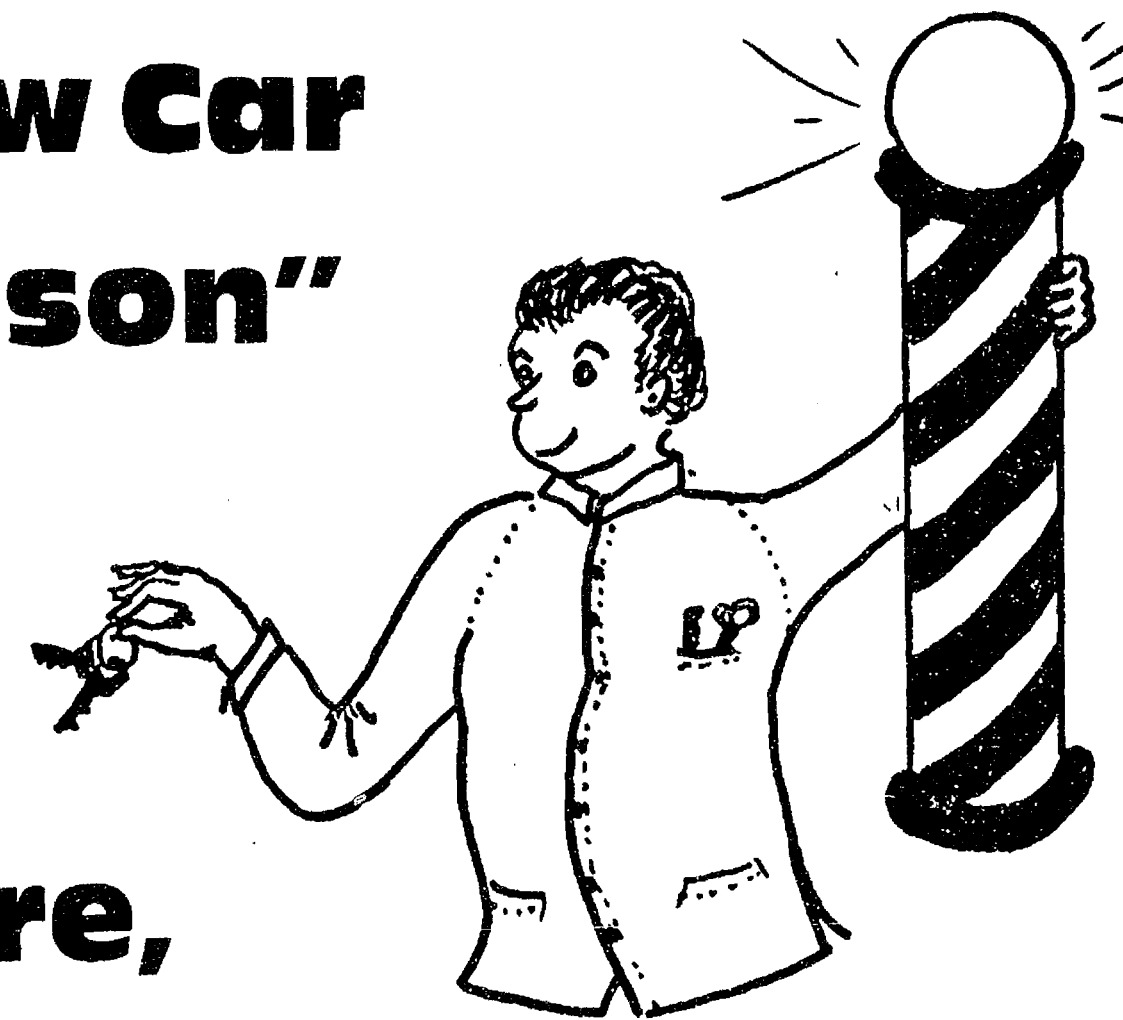

In correspondence to the other 49 governors, Blanchard said, "We must reinforce our image of fiscal responsibility by avoiding a fight over these dollars. Urging Congress and the President to pledge the federal cigarette tax to deficit reduction can demonstrate our willingness to help solve this overriding national problem."

However, several states have already adopted budgets which assume they will adopt all or part of the tax which is scheduled to expire.

Ms. Harmer, who was a diabetic herself for 25 years and is one of 500 successful recipients of a pancreas transplant, will be discussing such topics as medication, nutrition, exercise, self blood glucose monitoring, hygiene short and long term complications, alcohol, over-the-counter drugs, emotional support, available resources and many other topics.

Managing diabetes is a complicated and time consuming task. According to Ms. Harmer, many diabetics are not properly educated about their conditions and how to manage it. Diabetics can live long, healthy lives and enjoy many activities if they manage it. Diabetics can live long, healthy lives and enjoy many activities if they manage it. This year over 30 volunteers manned the phones, acted as gophers, tabulated the pledges and separated and sorted them to get ready for the mailing as calls came in from all over the county bringing in a total of $3,866.00 for the Jerry Lewis Telethon that was held at the Grayling State Bank this year over the Labor Day weekend.

Londo's TV and Sales donated two color T.V.'s for the workers and Cablevision provided the cable hook-up.

Griffen Beverage, McDonald's, Pizza Hut, Little Caesars, Newberry's General Store, Dan & Maggie's, Chicken Charlie's, Rochette's, A&P, Glen's, Chicken Delight and Cooper's provided all the refreshments for our four shifts of volunteers.

Terry Crawford, W.Q.O.N. and W.H.G.R. did a great job of radio coverage of the telethon and getting out the many challenges that we received.

The Grayling State Bank let us have the use of their facilities in the basement and Golden Rule gave us all the pads we needed.

The area Merchants and Businesses are to be commended for their donations and efforts in making this years telethon another success.

Shirley Mowery, the coordinator for the Grayling pledge center, will be having a meeting in the next few weeks for interested parties who would like to do a special event for Muscular Dystrophy. Anyone with any ideas will be welcomed. Time and place will be in future issues of this paper.

T-Shirts For Africa

All Girl Scout Troops in Mitten Bay Girl Scouts Council have been asked by Congressman Robert W. Davis to assist him in this project.

It gets very cold in Africa at night and the malnourished, poorly clothed Africans are ill-equipped to handle the low temperatures.

T-Shirts are good because generally one size fits all and most T-Shirts are unisex.

The T-Shirt Drive is through the end of September, so get your old clean T-Shirts that contain no political or socially unacceptable slogans to your favorite Girl Scout troop or leave at 103 Vilas St.

RSVP Reports

Mark your calendars for October 1st. All of our great volunteers are invited to come to the 1st Annual Fall Mystery Trip. Just be over to the RSVP office around 12:30. We will do the rest. Be sure to wear comfortable clothing. All that is required is a $1.00 donation. Refreshments will be served.

Also on September 30th will be the September Birthday party for all volunteers who have a birthday this month. Just stop by the office around 3:00 p.m. and have some cake, ice cream and fun with us. You may also bring a guest if you wish.

Our sympathies go out this week to the family of Bernice LaBarge. She was a wonderful person as well as being a very gifted volunteer. She will be greatly missed.

We find ourselves without a meals-on-wheels driver on Friday's. This would be for the noon meal and they would be picked up at the Crawford County Commission on Aging between 11:00 a.m. and 11:30. Anyone willing to give just a few hours of your time to deliver meals to the homebound, please call 348-4341 or 348-8322.

If you are 60 years or older and would like to join the RSVP program or know more about it either call or stop by. We are always in need of new volunteers as a lot of volunteers are getting ready to go to warmer climates. We are located at 308 Lawndale and are open Monday - Friday 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Notice of Intent to Apply for Final Authorization of Michigan's Hazardous Waste Program under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act

Notice is hereby given that the Michigan Department of Natural Resources intends to apply to the United States Environmental Protection Agency for final authorization of the state's hazardous waste program under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act. Final authorization will allow the State to operate the state's hazardous waste program in lieu of the federal program. ## Sen. Levin's Aide To Be in Area

Alpena — U.S. Senator Carl Levin (D-Michigan) announced today that his Community Development Representative, Jim Moran, will have the Senator's Mobile Office open to the public on Thursday, September 26 at the following locations:

Roscommon: 9:00-10:00 a.m., Main St. across from Roscommon County Building.

Grayling: 11:00-12:00, Co. Building parking lot, 200 W. Michigan.

Gaylord: 3:30-4:30, Court St., off of Main next to Otsego County Building.

"I hope that area residents will stop by my mobile office to meet with Mr. Moran if they are having difficulties with the federal government or if they would like to make their views known to me," Senator Levin said.

Senator Levin added, "The mobile office has had numerous visitors since it has been traveling throughout the state. I am pleased that people feel welcome to bring their concerns and views to me through my office on wheels."

Area residents who are unable to stop by the mobile office when it is in the area may wish to contact Senator Levin's regional office in Alpena at 149 Water Street, Alpena, 49707, Ph. 517/354-5520.

Herbal Corner

Let's see...where were we? Oh yes, herbal baths. Did you know that sea salt keeps hot water hotter longer? Did you get that, darlin'? Sitting in a tub of water as hot as tolerable for about 20 minutes will get the circulation pumping faster, you sweat (excuse me) perspire all the more, thereby releasing a lot of toxins out of the bloodstream. You know, those nasty little things called germs and viruses.

Your skin is your biggest filtering system, and healing baths are quite beneficial. One to two cups of sea salt in a tub of hot water with a steeped and strained tea of Comfrey Root and Fenugreek is reported to relieve congestion in the lungs. Comfrey has allontoin — the healing chemical your body has naturally and it is said that Comfrey is our second most healing herb.

What's the first healing herb? Glad you asked. Golden Seal is healing from the nasal to the anus, from sinuses to hemorrhoids because it works wonders on mucous membranes. Golden Seal should be used with garlic when taken internally. Garlic — with its sulphur — will keep the vessels clear while Golden Seal does its thing. Golden Seal and Echinacea tea, when added to a sitz bath, is said to relieve pain and swelling of stitches or wounds. When Golden Seal root powder is added to vaseline, it has been said that it will take care of some of the worst cases of diaper rash.

Years ago I had a foster daughter who itched with mono-hives so bad she scratched till she bled. When taken to the emergency room the Dr. shocked me by telling me to bathe her in one cup of baking soda and two cups of oatmeal in tepid water. Bless his scientific heart if it didn't work. The baking soda aided the itching, and the gluten in the oatmeal kept the soda from drying her skin. I found this to work well after weeding all day and I have general itching all over my arms and legs.

Herbally yours,
E. Diana Cerelli, C.H.

Resource Review

By Bruce Patrick
Conservation Officer

Perhaps the most common game animals in Michigan are the squirrels. There are two species which are hunted - fox squirrels and gray squirrels (black squirrels are a color phase of gray squirrels). Gray squirrels are essentially creatures of big timber, where plenty of nuts and deep shade prevail. Fox squirrels utilize more open habitat with a more varied food supply. In this area, the ranges overlap so that both gray squirrels and somewhat larger fox squirrels are frequently seen.

The game squirrels normally produce two litters of young, the first in March and the second in mid-summer. From one to six young may be born at a time with three being the average litter size.

Squirrels inhabit hollows in trees, make globular nests of leafy twigs in lofty branches and spend most of their time aloft. Nuts, berries, fruits, grains, fungi, insects, buds and seeds are all included in their menu. Game squirrels do not hibernate and must search for food throughout the winter, at which time they may become an expensive problem at bird feeders.

Like all animals, squirrels are subject to diseases and parasites. Mange, or scabies, is perhaps the most serious problem faced by squirrels. Again, like all animals, epidemics are more likely when population densities are high.

Although squirrels are one of the most common game animals, they are the most under utilized. The hunting season has been extended to January 1 in hopes that more will be used instead of lost.

CARD OF THANKS

I really appreciate your faith in me and I would very much like to Thank You in advance for your continued support.

RECALL OF HELEN M. SPENCER, CLERK

REASON FOR DEMANDING RECALL OF HELEN M. SPENCER, TOWNSHIP CLERK

With respect to proposed improvements and additions to the Lovells Township Hall and to the Lovells Township Fire Building, the above stated elected Township official during the term of office, incident to official duties required, failed to faithfully represent the People of Lovells Township, and was otherwise guilty of misconduct as follows:

5. Permitted start of construction prior to issuance of required building permit.
6. Approved signing of construction contract without posting for public inspection and notice in the Township, of the architect's drawings and specifications.

JUSTIFICATION OF CONDUCT IN OFFICE OF HELEN M. SPENCER, TOWNSHIP CLERK

I took an oath to faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Township Clerk according to the best of my ability and I have done that for the past nine years. I have been an honest, conscientious clerk and the betterment of the township has always been my top priority. The charges against me are simply not true. I have done nothing either legally or morally wrong. In the nine years I have been in office, we have had very good audit reports and have never overspent the budget. A handful of people who know very little about how Township Government works are tearing our community apart instead of working to better it. The charges against us are completely different from those on the ultimatum to resign that was presented to us. I feel that these people would have drummed up some kind of charges whether or not we had built the offices. Perhaps tennis courts would have been a better way to spend the money. Federal Revenue Sharing money must be spent in five years or it is lost. Most of the money for this project came from this fund. Your support is greatly appreciated.

Thank you,
Helen M. Spencer

RECALL QUESTION

JUSTIFICATION OF CONDUCT IN OFFICE OF DOLORES M. HABERLAND, TOWNSHIP TREASURER

In my letter to the registered Voters in Nov. 1984, I stated "I planned to work in the best interest of all areas of Lovells Township". When I took my Oath of Office, that was my goal and it hasn't changed.

At the Annual Meeting, March 1984, the majority of the people present voted to have the Township Board work in the Township Hall. At the Annual Meeting in March 1985, the majority of the people present voted to build the new offices. The facts are Public Record as recorded in the minutes of those meetings. Some of the people who started this recall, voted with the majority at those 2 meetings. The others were either not at the meeting or do not normally take part in local affairs. The reason for this recall goes far deeper than the charges stated.

The offices in the Township Hall are now open 5 days a week. Many people have made use of them. I sincerely hope they will remain open in the future for your convenience.

Grayling Cooperative Nursery

Grayling Cooperative Nursery, Inc., located at 306 Plum Street is still accepting applications for the 1985-86 school year. We still have a few openings in our four-year-old classes. The three-year-old class is full but you can add your name to our waiting list.

The three-year-old class meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:00 to 11:15 a.m. There are three four-year-old classes this year; two classes meet on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays and one class on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons. The morning class meets from 9:00 to 11:15 a.m. and the afternoon classes meet from 12:30 to 2:45 p.m. We try to follow the public school calendar and are closed when the public schools are closed for "snow days".

We would like to stress that ours is a Co-op nursery school. Moms and/or Dads work with the children and teacher in the classroom an average of once or twice a month. Also, each parent is involved with a committee to keep the school running smoothly. Board members are elected each spring from parents of students who are returning in the fall.

The school is a non-profit organization. Tuition is based upon monthly expenses which include teacher's salary, utilities, taxes and upkeep of the school and equipment. If tuition changes it is voted on by the membership. We also have two tuition assistance grants available, based on need, in our three day a week four-year-old classes.

Included in the many learning experiences and skills your child will gain are: cooperation, fine muscle development, self-concept, awareness of others, shape and form recognition, categorizing, classifying and sensory perception. The more your child learns to participate in self-directed play, the easier it will be for him/her to set standards for him/her self and to think abstractly.

Also included in their daily activities is snack time. Nutritional snacks are provided by the working parents.

During the year the children take several field trips. In the past we have visited the fire department, the sheriff's department, the post office, Mercy Hospital, the airport, the bowling alley and Camp AuSable (for hay rides). We use the Crawford County Public Transit System for all our field trips and the children love it. We have also had many visitors at the school including Mrs. Barry Fenn for dental hygiene, the Lion's Club vision testing unit and Mr. Perez from the DNR.

Weather permitting, the children play outdoors on the school playground. Thanks to Marilyn and JoAnne Neuberger our grounds and building were very well maintained this summer. They did the yard work, painted the building and made some improvements in our playground equipment. George and Cheryl McCarver spent many hours working inside the building during the summer improving our storage space and doing minor repairs.

If you are interested in enrolling your child or desire more information, please call Membership Chairman, Gloria Dana at 348-7025; President, Sandy Davis at 348-2486; or Co-treasurer, Mary Everson at 348-8542. You may also write the school at P.O. Box 349, Grayling, Michigan 49738.

RECALL OF BETTY LOU BURDEN, TRUSTEE

REASON FOR DEMANDING RECALL OF BETTY LOU BURDEN, TOWNSHIP TRUSTEE

With respect to proposed improvements and additions to the Lovells Township Hall and to the Lovells Township Fire Building, the above stated elected Township official during the term of office, incident to official duties required, failed to faithfully represent the People of Lovells Township, and was otherwise guilty of misconduct as follows:

1. At an Annual Township Meeting held March 30, 1985, failed to disclose the actual cost of such construction.
2. Failed to submit the project for, or otherwise secure competitive bids.
3. Approved the contract for such construction in an amount in excess of that contained in the budget approved at the stated Annual Meeting.
4. No public notice was given of the proposed addition to the Township Fire Building of public outside restrooms.
5. Permitted start of construction prior to issuance of required building permit.
6. Approved signing of construction contract without posting for public inspection and notice in the Township, of the architect's drawings and specifications.

JUSTIFICATION OF CONDUCT IN OFFICE OF BETTY LOU BURDEN, TOWNSHIP TRUSTEE

When I took my Oath of Office in Nov., I said I would do my best for the Township to the best of my ability. I also have stated that decisions I would make would not make all of the people happy. I am proud of the additions we have made to the Town Hall. I feel the foremost purpose of the Township Hall is to conduct the business and government of the Township and there should be proper facilities to do so. The other things are all pluses. The library, park & etc. What we have done will be here for a long time and so will the impact of this recall along with the additional expense to the Township for which there will be nothing to show for it. Recall is a serious thing and should only be done for something of a serious nature. I feel that there was a great over reaction on the part of some disenchanted people. You elected people to office by a majority to make decisions for the Township. If they can be recalled so easily, why not have your meeting and let the mob rule.

RECALL OF ESTHER J. MULLIN, TRUSTEE

REASON FOR DEMANDING RECALL OF ESTHER J. MULLIN, TOWNSHIP TRUSTEE

With respect to proposed improvements and additions to the Lovells Township Hall and to the Lovells Township Fire Building, the above stated elected Township official during the term of office, incident to official duties required, failed to faithfully represent the People of Lovells Township, and was otherwise guilty of misconduct as follows:

5. Permitted start of construction prior to issuance of required building permit.
6. Approved signing of construction contract without posting for public inspection and notice in the Township, of the architect's drawings and specifications.

JUSTIFICATION OF CONDUCT IN OFFICE OF ESTHER J. MULLIN, TOWNSHIP TRUSTEE

You voted me into this office to represent you the people of Lovells Township. When voting on the issues to improve our Township Hall, my consideration was for the interest and welfare of the entire township.

The buildings were built to serve you, to help make your government more efficient, your community a better place to live. This was a positive move.

I took the oath of office serious and try to uphold it. I know I can not please all of you all the time. If I have caused anger and pain to anyone, I'm sorry. It was not done intentionally. I do not believe I have done anything immoral or illegal, certainly nothing to warrant this recall.

I believe the charges stated for the recall to be untrue, brought about by a few irate people who have fired up this community with false statements and ugly rumors.

I have done my best in performing the duties of trustee and want to continue to serve our community. Lovells is a good place to live. Let us keep it that way. May God be with us all.

GM Brings Science Films to Area Schools

LOCAL STUDENTS will be receiving the latest information on a variety of scientific topics during the coming school year. General Motors is giving the nationally acclaimed Science Screen Report series of teaching aids to schools in this area. The monthly video tapes present the latest developments in science, medicine and engineering. A typical report traces the history of computers, showing how this technology is affecting the world and why the production of a computer chip, the "brain" of a computer, requires a clean room similar to a hospital environment.

Grayling — Local public school students will have the opportunity to view eight new science films during the 1985-86 school year courtesy of the General Motors Corporation.

Science Screen Report, a monthly film series focusing on the latest developments in science and technology, is being made available by GM to all public schools in the Crawford, Oscoda, Ogemaw, Roscommon (C.O.O.R.) Intermediate School District and others throughout the state of Michigan beginning this fall. The 13-minute programs and accompanying lesson planning guides are produced in cooperation with the National Science Teachers Association. They are designed to stimulate interest within today's video generation in science-related fields.

During a presentation of a sample copy of the series to educators in the C.O.O.R. Intermediate School District, Thomas J. Pyden, regional representative, Michigan Region, GM Public Relations noted, "As we approach the 21st century it is obvious that science and technology will play an even greater role in both our personal and business lives. Our future employees and customers will have to have a better science and technical background. It is appropriate for GM to assist educators in emphasizing the importance of science-related studies."

"Hopefully this effort will help make students aware of some of the challenges ahead as they elect fields of study for tomorrow's job opportunities," pyden added.

Dr. Phillip E. Runkel, superintendent of Public Instruction for the State of Michigan, indicated this program will provide an excellent opportunity for the Michigan Dept. of Education and General Motors to work together to develop a cooperative program to assist students in the very important area of career

Don't Burn This Wood

If you have a pile of preservative-treated wood scraps destined for your fireplace or wood stove, get rid of it now! The New England Journal of Medicine reports that wood treated with chromate-copper-arsenate (CCA) is extremely toxic when burned in the home.

As an example, a rural family of eight had been heating their home with a wood-burning stove fueled with leftover scraps of CCA-treated wood and plywood. The entire family came down with the symptoms of copper, chromium and arsenic poisoning: Bronchitis, pneumonia, ear infections, blackouts, gastrointestinal ills, nosebleeds, muscle cramps, dermatitis over the arms, legs & soles of feet, and other ailments. The symptoms were most severe during the winter and tended to subside during the summer. The youngest children, who played on the floor, had the most severe skin and respiratory ailments, including recurring severe hair loss, sometimes almost total baldness.

Medical investigators found extremely high levels of arsenic in the fingernails of every family member, and levels went as high as 100 to 5000 ppm. Normal levels are 0.9 to 1.88 ppm. Samples of dust, dirt and wood ash from the living area contained high levels of copper, chromium and arsenic.

Experts say such poisoning could be occurring in other homes where treated wood is burned frequently. Don't take a chance, experts advise. Send your treated wood scraps to the garbage can.

c/o The Editor's Mailbag

Dear Sir:

May I make a few comments regarding your weekly newspaper.

I enjoy reading it almost in its entirety with the exception of "From Our Corner" which tells us just about all of "nothing". I read it in hopes it will contain some bit of informative news — but, alas, just trivial, boring "turkey chatter."

Of special interest always, is the "Herbal Corner", "Doodles From The Tail Timber", and "The Bible Speaks". I get quite nauseous tho, after reading Mr. "Ben B's" abusive letters. It appears he is a very disturbed person and his letters deserve no place in your fine newspaper. I respect Pastor "B" for "turning the other cheek" and expressing his love and concern and prayers for those who spitefully abuse him.

Sincerely

Mrs. A.

P.S. What happened to the weekly Weather Report by Chuck Fick?

Mr. Howard D. Madsen,
Editor
Crawford Co. Avalanche
Grayling, Mi. 49738

Dear Mr. Madsen:

I am an Alcoholic...a recovering alcoholic. We alcoholics have a disease. The A.M.A. recognizes it. Alcoholics are allergic to alcohol. Alcoholics are not bad people, we are sick people. We can quit drinking, for we have quit many, many times...then we drank and drank, again and again. Alcoholics cannot quit drinking for good on their own. No one can make an alcoholic quit drinking. One's willpower is not enough.

Pastor B, in the column of August 29, 1985, in his usual sanctimonious hew and cry and obdurate manner, once again displays his lack of charity. This time for the alcoholic. Can anyone imagine pleading with an alcoholic "to confess the sin of alcoholism", and then the absurd proclamation "stay away from the drinking crowd and don't take that first drink ever again"?

Pastor B. may be too young to remember the 18th Amendment and the later 21st Amendment, although he plays the same tune as the W.C.T.U. Perhaps he's forgotten that the "C" in W.C.T.U. stands for Christian. Prohibition was a failure. The country and world is filled with social drinkers and church-going in every walk of life. They simply do not have the disease of alcoholism.

In his pedantry, Pastor B. doesn't mention the assistance of medical science, as some of his brethren are wont to do. Yes, the physician can diagnose a valium deficiency, as in my case. Yes, the physician or law officer can prescribe or order the use of the drug "antibuse" which causes the drunk to vomit when drinking alcohol. These remedies don't stop alcoholics. The alcoholic is filled with denial and blocks out the reality of life. Can you imagine the heedless alcoholic responding to the admonition of Pastor B., "allow the Holy Spirit to take the place of alcohol in your life"?

It is regrettable that the good Pastor doesn't read the columns "Dear Abby" or "Alcohol" by Dr. Joseph A. Porsch, M.D., or he would be aware of a viable, proven solution for millions of alcoholics. That is Alcoholics Anonymous. Dr. Porsch recently wrote, "Even for alcoholics who went through hospital treatment and are in successful psychotherapy, AA is still the mainstay."

Alcoholics Anonymous is the foundation of my sobriety. AA provides the brick and mortar upon which millions of us, around the world, have built a new and wonderful life of serenity. Oh yes, God has a very special place in my new life. I'd like to pass on to Pastor B. steps 2 and 3 of the AA 12 steps:

Step 2 - "Came to believe that a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity."

Step 3 - "Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to God as we understood him."

The Twelve Steps of Alcoholics Anonymous guide us in our day to day living. There are three pertinent ideas:

(a) That we were alcoholic and could not manage our own lives.

(b) That probably no human power could have relieved our alcoholism.

(c) That God could and would if He were sought.

AA differs significantly from a formal, rigid, structured religious activity, with its threatened hell and damnation. Yes, church attendance may be beneficial, but is not the sole solution, as Pastor B. is advocating. AA provides communication, understanding, concern and common welfare. AA is a positive program of sharing, helping, loving and caring. There are over 20 AA groups, actively helping other alcoholics within a 30 mile radius of Grayling. It really works!

Sincerely Yours,

Name withheld to preserve anonymity of an AA Group

Mr. Howard Madsen,
Editor
The Crawford Co. Avalanche
P.O. Box 490
Grayling, Mi 49738

Dear Mr. Madsen:

F. Morgan Roberts, Presbyterian minister, lecturer, and fisherman, seemed to have ignored the main point of our article "The No Kill Controversy" in "The Bible Speaks." Why does Roberts stress the welfare of a few thousand trout in the AuSable River, and ignore the plight of millions of murdered human babies?

Recently, the 197th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) overwhelmingly approved a committee report that urged the church to support abortion as a solution to unwanted pregnancy. This may explain why Roberts showed more concern about the safety of trout in the waters of the AuSable, than human babies in the waters of their mother's womb. This may be the reason Roberts apparently has more "reverence for wildlife" than human life.

We agree with Roberts' description of how "the Old Testament displays an amazing advanced concept of conservation." He referred to God's special care in the preservation of "fruit trees" in Deut 20:19, "beasts of burden" in Exodus 23:5, "waterfowl" in Deut 22:6,7, and "cattle" in Jonah 4:11. It is strange that he missed God's special care for a pregnant woman and her child in Exodus 21:22-25. Especially if Roberts believes man is created in God's image above animals. However, a recent survey reported in "Christianity Today" stated that 84% of the Presbyterians polled did not believe in the creation account of Genesis in the Bible. They did not believe Adam and Eve were real persons.

Roberts spent much of his lengthy letter questioning the alleged "misuse of scripture" in our column, saying some quotes were "irrelevant" and finally accusing the author of "a cheap shot, inappropriate for an author who purports to tell us what the Bible teaches." While none of us may agree 100% on Bible interpretation, it is most important that all of us believe the Bible is the inerrant, infallible Word of the living God. Our final authority is not man, but God and His Holy Scriptures. "Christianity Today" reported a recent survey in which 88% of the Presbyterians did not believe the scriptures are the inspired, inerrant word of God. This may explain many of our differences over Bible interpretation.

Let us consider a scenario of how a man with Robert's thinking could have responded to the events in ancient Egypt during the bondage of the Jews. We would hear the order of the king to kill all Jewish boy babies at birth by throwing them in the river. (Exodus 1:15-22). (A possibility for ERA to consider when they discover unborn women have rights too). What would Roberts have said when observing those dead human babies floating in the river? Would he have been more concerned about pollution threatening the "national treasure" and "magnificent" fish and wildlife of the Nile?

To have our personal integrity publicly questioned by a Presbyterian is a small thing. A recent survey indicated that 49% of the Presbyterians did not believe Jesus was born of a virgin. Those who would criticize the character of the virgin Mary, and the divine nature of our Lord Jesus Christ, can be expected to have little mercy on the rest of us.

We have not, neither do we intend to attack the sport of fishing. All of us who have spent much time fishing have hooked and released hundreds of thousands of fish because of size, season, or limit requirements. The rub comes when the no-kill group refuses to admit they are fishing solely for pleasure at the mercy of the fish. If they have no pleasure in hooking, handling, and harming fish, then why don't they just spend all their fishing time at the local fish hatchery where they can observe trophy fish all day. They can even save the money from their license, tackle and bait to buy fish food.

We agree with all fishermen that it is important to conserve the life quality of trout in the waters of the AuSable. However, we believe the controversy compels all of us to conserve and reverence the human life of every human baby in the waters of the mother's womb. Loss of dignity for the life of the innocent and helpless, assures us of the eventual loss of dignity for the life of the wise and powerful.

Pastor "B"

To The Editor:

Left our home with my feelings and heart heavy with turmoil with the upcoming recall election.

As we have traveled through this great country, seeing it for the first time, I looked at the faces of Mount Rushmore and wondered about the conflicts and challenges they met while they were in office. On to Salt Lake City where we celebrated our 26th wedding anniversary. A very good place for some spiritual renewal and on to Las Vegas for some lighter fanfare.

As we have traveled, and I marvel at the beauty and wonders of our country, I look at the people also. I thought I lived in the greatest little town in the world. I hope I still do and that each and every person will get out and vote, if only to be counted in full numbers.

Road Commission Minutes

August 23, 1985

A regular meeting of the Crawford County Road Commission was held in their office in Grayling. Vice-Chairman Cason presiding. In attendance were: Commissioner Kraus, Engineer-Manager John Keir and Acting Secretary Joanne Turner. Absent: Chairman Parker.

The minutes of July 26, 1985 were read. Commissioner Kraus made a motion to accept the minutes as read, seconded by Commissioner Cason. All voted in favor, minutes approved.

Payroll Voucher No. 17 in the amount of $23,221.94 and Material checks 9614 - 9666 in the amount of $21,573.84 were presented to the Board for approval of payment. Commissioner Cason made a motion to accept the vouchers, seconded by Commissioner Kraus.

Andie Neilson, Chairman of Roads & Bridges, appeared before the Board regarding the status of paving projects.

Permits were reviewed and signed at this time. Consumers Power Company to install underground service on South Grayling Road in Beaver Creek Township, and to install a pole on East Fletcher Road in South Branch Township; General Telephone Company to bury communication cable on County Road 612 in Frederic and Maple Forest Townships, and on Mcmasters Bridge Road in Lovells and South Branch Townships, and on Skyline Road in Beaver Creek Township.

The Board decided to accept bids on September 6, 1985 at 10:00 a.m. for the 1985 paving projects.

Engineer-Manager Keir informed the Board that two quotes for roof repairs had been received. The Board would like additional quotes.

The latest delivery date scheduled for spreader boxes was discussed. Two Fontana Model AC 3020 - 12' from Burch Body Works as per the bid were to arrive about July 9, 1985. That date was revised to the middle of August. Another postponement was received which would place delivery in early October. Since two new trucks have not been operational because of these circumstances, the Board decided to cancel this order. A purchase order was placed with Miller Equipment Company for Hi-Way Do-All's to be received in September.

The Board signed Township Participation Agreements for paving projects in South Branch Township; namely, Deerheart Valley Road and Pines Trail.

Correspondence was received from Grayling Township regarding the maintenance and improvements of a private road. Also, correspondence from South Branch Township requesting estimates for paving a public road.

A discussion was held about a possible improvement of Pollack Bridge. Further information and research was requested by the Board.

There being no further business before the Board, a motion was made and seconded to adjourn. All voted in favor, meeting adjourned.

and fine fish bowl stones in place of sand. He added river grass from along the East Branch of the AuSable and sprayed it with varnish to preserve it. The diorama contained many realistic touches such as driftwood stained grey for the part "above the water" and stained brown for the part "below the water level."

"When we first moved to this house he promised he wouldn't bring any of his things into the living room," Sally joked. "Now we almost have a museum in here. Children just love to come here and look at everything."

Petoskey Beats Vikings 29-7

A big Petoskey team ground out a 29-7 win over Grayling here last Friday.

Grayling's lone score came on a 71-yard bomb from Todd Klinger to George Duncan in the fourth quarter. Kevin Hudson kicked the extra point.

The Viking defense stopped Petoskey from any big plays — their longest gain was 21 yards — but they couldn't keep Petoskey from sustaining long drives.

Petoskey scored in each quarter. They used a two-yard run, two-yard pass, six-yard run, and four-yard run to score touchdowns. Three of Petoskey's touchdowns came on fourth and goal plays.

Coach Bill Klinger said his team tackled better than last week against Cheboygan but there was still too much arm tackling. He also said the offense must execute better. He felt the offensive line did a good job protecting for the pass but Grayling had

La Leche League Meeting Notice

If your family is awaiting the arrival of a new member, the Grayling-Roscommon La Leche League meeting: "Baby Arrives; The Family and the Breastfed Baby," may interest you. Informal discussion will center on how to manage those first hectic weeks, with emphasis on the entire family as well as timely tips for the nursing mother and baby.

The importance of breastfeeding is stressed, not as an end in itself, but as an integral part of the whole human relationship.

The meeting will be held on Thursday, October 3 at 7:30 p.m. at 610 W. Sunset Drive, Roscommon. Expectant mothers are encouraged to attend the series of meetings before the baby arrives. Any woman interested in breastfeeding is welcome; babies are always welcome. For further information, or for breastfeeding help, call Carolyn Crist at 275-8431.

trouble running against the bigger Petoskey squad.

On defense, he said the defensive backfield did a good job shutting down Petoskey. Jeff Wolcott, Tom Miller, George Duncan and Don Brooks did most of the work in the defensive backfield Friday.

Mrs. Caid, Mrs. Marjorie Harwood, and Tim Caid attended the wedding of the former's granddaughter, Miss Peggy Caid and Jim Wells at New Buffalo on Saturday.

The leading tacklers were Brooks, Rick Sprague, Tom Shively, Kevin Hudson, Duncan, Miller, and Jim Laurent.

The Grayling J.V. squad also was beaten by Petoskey 21-0. The young squad started out right. Pat Nunn kicked off deep to Petoskey and Grayling held on the first couple of plays. The Vikings then recovered a fumble on Petoskey's 45-yard line.

The Vikings couldn't move and punted. They held Petoskey again and Pat Nunn blocked their punt and Grayling recovered on the 20. A pass to Craig Hudson took Grayling to the seven-yard line for a first and goal. Paul Anteau drove to the goal line on second down and was stopped six inches short. On third down, a dive play was stuffed for a two-yard loss and a fourth down quarterback roll didn't escape a heavy rush.

After Grayling failed to score, the two teams battled for field position until Petoskey scored near the end of the second quarter. Petoskey scored twice in the second half.

Chamber Chatter

Our recent "Chamber of Commerce Day" on W.Q.O.N. was a complete success. It was informative to those who aren't familiar with what our Chamber is all about and it brought us nearer to about one hundred area non-member businesses. Eighteen of those expressed an interest in having personal contact with us to discuss possible memberships. Growth of the Chamber is imminent and with each new member we grow stronger and more effective in representing the business community. Our thanks to all who helped our efforts.

If there are other interested parties, either commercial, organizational or individual who would like to investigate Chamber memberships, we would love to talk to you. It certainly is a worthwhile investment in the future of our area. Please call our office at 348-2921 or 348-7315.

Last Thursday we enjoyed the ribbon cutting and grand opening of the Wurtsmith Community Federal Credit Union. It certainly is a beautiful building and a credit to the community.

The newest member joining the Chamber is Art's Lock and Safe Service owned and operated by Art & Marian Tessin and located at 216 Michigan Avenue. Welcome aboard, folks.

Quick Change

It's a simple matter to change a light bulb. A few quick turns and you switch darkness into light. Suddenly all the corners in the room come clear again.

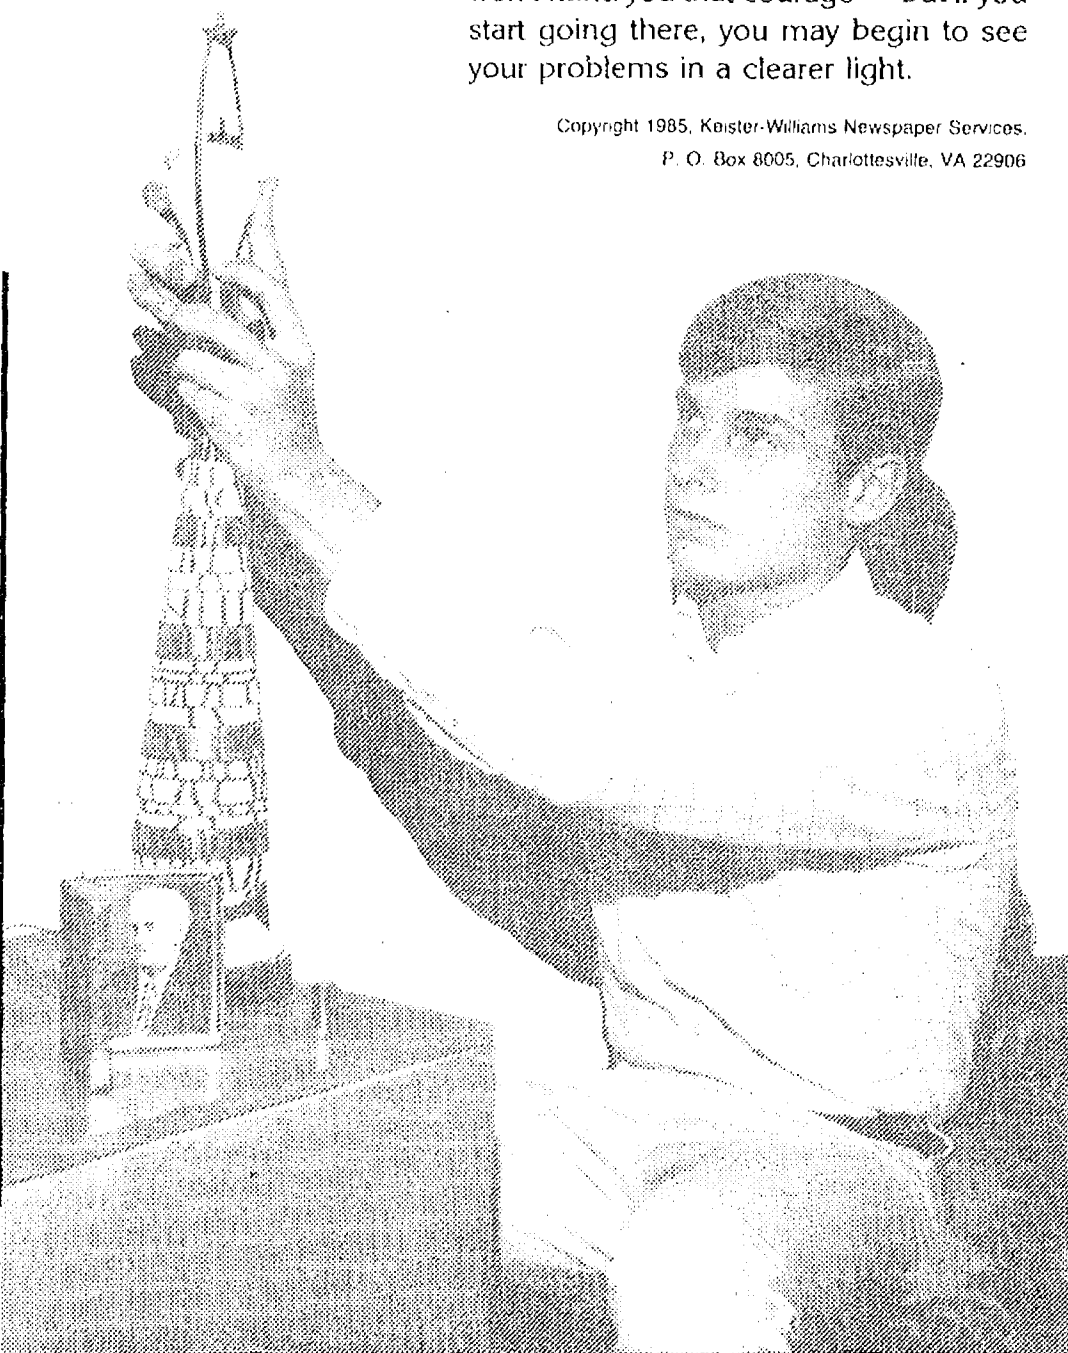

Suppose you could solve all your problems that simply. Suppose that by a flick of the wrist you could flood your troubles with light and understanding. Are you sure you could stand the sight?

Revelation — and perhaps self-revelation most of all — isn't always pretty. It takes courage to turn the light on yourself, to face up to things. The Church won't hand you that courage — but if you start going there, you may begin to see your problems in a clearer light.

Elk Festival Set In Atlanta Sept. 28

The first annual festival to promote Michigan's growing Elk herd will be held Saturday, September 28 on the streets of Atlanta, Mich.

September is bugling season for the large animals, and the bulls have full antlers. Elk range maps will be available for persons wanting to go on elk sighting tours north and west of Atlanta.

The Elk Festival will feature many events, the most popular of which appears to be a bed race. Chairman Mike Suiter has had about two dozen bed race teams express interest. Rules are being kept to a minimum, with one rider and two persons pushing any sort of wheeled bed and a real mattress required. That event starts at noon on a closed portion of State Street (M-32) in Atlanta.

Events that day will start with an Atlanta Lions Club pancake breakfast from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m.; a cross-cut log sawing contest starting at 11 a.m., an 11:20 presentation by Rep. John Pridnia and the bed race at noon.

Afternoon music will be provided by DJ Roy Beard. A greased pole contest, children's games and a penny scramble will be offered in Briley Township Park, where a bingo game will be going on in the park pavilion 3 to 7 p.m. Various booths, food concessions, games, pony rides and moonwalk will be offered along the downtown street. Clowns, displays and prizes will add to the day's activities. A band, "Wild Country," will play for an outdoor dance in the street during the evening.

Prizes have been donated by local businesses and by area beverage distributors,

Bear Patch To Be Given

Lansing — In an effort to better determine Michigan bear reproduction and population figures, the Dept. of Natural Resources (DNR) will offer bear hunters a "Michigan Bear Management Cooperator" arm patch in exchange for a tooth or female reproductive tract of bear taken during the 1985 bear hunting season.

The bear tooth will determine age, the reproductive tract will show whether the bear was pregnant and how many cubs were born. These samples also will indicate how well bears are doing in relation to the quality of their habitat.

A new bear hunting regulation change this year requires bear hunters to register a bear at a DNR Field Office (head with validation tag is sufficient) within 72 hours after the kill. Last year 7 days were allowed. The reproductive tract and tooth should be brought to the DNR Field Office at this time too, for those hunters participating.

Broilable Beef

Only about 12 percent of each beef animal ends up as broilable steaks.

Your Week Ahead Horoscope

Forecast Period: 9/29-10/5/85

ARIES Mar. 21-Apr. 19

Your circle of acquaintances continues to grow. Don't forget those who were in at the start of it all.

SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22-Dec. 21

CAPRICORN Dec. 22-Jan. 19

Letting others impose on your good will can cost you. Use your own reasoning powers to meet a crisis.

AQUARIUS Jan. 20-Feb. 18

PISCES Feb. 19-Mar. 20

and tickets will be sold throughout the day for a prize drawing at 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

Michigan's Elk herd, the largest one in the wild, east of the Mississippi River, is estimated at over 800 animals this year. A hunt this December will harvest 120 animals, but the spring calf crop was estimated as at least that number, if not more. The range has spread from the Pigeon River Country State Forest west of Atlanta to sightings north, east and even south of Atlanta.

Teddy Bear Clinic at Mercy Hospital

Too often young children end up in the emergency room under unhappy circumstances. The emergency room staff at Grayling Mercy Hospital would like children to know what to expect when they come to the emergency room.

On October 5, 1985, Mercy Hospital will be sponsoring a Teddy Bear Clinic for children two through ten. Children are invited to bring their torn teddy bear or doll to the emergency room from 10 a.m. until noon. Volunteers will simulate emergency medical treatment for teddy bears and dolls.

The Teddy Bear Clinic gives children an opportunity to see the inside of a modern emergency room, as well as an ambulance, and meet the people who care for emergency patients. The children will also have the opportunity to have their vital signs checked, and their height and weight recorded.

The Teddy Bear Clinic is being held as part of Emergency Medical Services Week, sponsored by the American College of Emergency Physicians, September 29 - October 5. For more information contact Renate Champion at 348-5461, extension 368.

Pastoral Care Education Program at Mercy Hospital

The Pastoral Care Dept. of Mercy Hospital, Grayling, will be sponsoring a Pastoral Care Education Program October 3, through November 21, for Ordained and Lay ministers wishing to learn more about ministering to the sick and dying.

Sister Mary Genesee Kubesh, RSM, director of pastoral care at Mercy Hospital, said the program is also open to anyone wishing to learn more about the topic. These individuals will be charged a $2 fee for registration and materials, however.

Over 70 invitations have been sent to members of the clergy throughout the Mercy Hospital service area. All sessions will be held on Thursdays, from 1:30 p.m. until 3:30 p.m.

Some of the topics to be discussed are: Definition of Pastoral Care of the Sick and Dying in a Hospital Setting, common illnesses at Mercy Hospital, Death, Dying and Grief Counseling, Crisis Intervention with Patients and Their Families, Introduction to Gerontology and the Needs of Senior Patients, Pastoral Care of the Sick and Dying After Discharge, Medical Ethics and Confidentiality, Philosophies and Goals of the Sisters of Mercy Health Corporation, and many others.

Sister Genesee said the purpose of the educational sessions is to enhance the knowledge of the local clergy, and to provide a setting for discussions among and between representatives of all faiths concerning illness, dying and death. "We will all learn from one another," said Sister Genesee.

The program will be offered again in the spring for those who cannot attend the fall session. For more information, individuals can call Mercy Hospital at 348-5461, extension 368.

4-H News

The Michigan 4-H Foundation is pleased to announce the publication of "Savor It!" The cookbooks nearly 500 recipes come from members and friends across the state of Michigan. For more information, contact your favorite 4-H leader or the Co-operative Extension, 348-2841 (ext. 264 or 265).

Two of our largest fall youth programs have started up, Soccer and Bowling. Each club has more than 100 youth. During the season we will try to keep you up on weekly scores. Also this fall, October 22, is the 4-H Leader banquet. This will be held at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Have been mentioning the upcoming Kettunen Center workshops in previous articles. Let me tell you a little about the Center. Kettunen Center was opened in 1961 to educate volunteer 4-H leaders in the skills and philosophy needed to work with youths in 4-H programs across the state. In the 22 years, over 122,000 people have attended workshops and conferences at the center. In 1984-85, 25 leaders and teens attended the center from Crawford County. Located in Tustin, Mi., it is owned and operated by the Michigan 4-H Foundation. Because of charitable contributions received annually from individuals and organizations who believe in the value of 4-H work, the costs of workshops to 4-H leaders have been minimal.

National 4-H Week, Oct. 6-12. Are you ready?

Some toxic wastes in West Germany are disposed of in bricked-up caverns in old salt mines whose formations have been stable for 250 million years and are presumably immutable for eons more, National Geographic reports.
